

OUR TOWN

BRUNO SCHLUMBERGER, THE OTTAWA CITIZEN

Tim Simboli, Brian Tardif, Paul Welsh

These three men are working together to deliver community services more efficiently. This summer they opened a building at 312 Parkdale Avenue, called 1 Community Place, that their three community service organizations bought and will share. Tim Simboli, left, is executive director of the Family Service Centre, which provides counselling and education to people in distress. Brian Tardif, centre, is executive director of Citizen Advocacy, which matches volunteers with people who have disabilities. Paul Welsh, right, is executive director of Rideauwood Addiction and Family Services, which provides substance-abuse programs.